Loew Award Nomination Form

Criteria: The Rev. Dr. Ralph W. Loew Award for Human Service is presented annually by Lutheran Charities to one individual in recognition of service in social ministry extending beyond their congregation into the Western New York community. Nominees may be Lutheran clergy or laity, salaried or volunteer, who work with Lutheran or non-Lutheran agencies. Nominees also may be non-Lutherans involved with Lutheran agencies.

The Rev. Dr. Loew was a leader in community service and pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church from 1944–1975. He founded the local Habitat for Humanity chapter, Trinity Tower, the Haller Student Center and served on the boards of the Community Action Organization, Deaconess Hospital, Samaritan Pastoral Counseling Center and the Margaret Wendt Foundation.
